When unaddressed conflict occurs in the workplace, it can reduce morale, hamper performance, and increase absenteeism. It leads to increased stress among employees, decreased productivity, and at worst, aggression or violence. Studies show that managers spend at least 25 percent of their time resolving workplace conflicts.

Conflict in the workplace is as common as paper jams and subpar coffee. We all get irritated from time to time. Someone says something we don't agree with. Someone doesn't give you the credit you deserve. Someone laughs when you said something serious. But unlike our sixth-grade selves, we can't talk back to other people—especially at work, though conflicts are bound
